A CALM IN FRANCE.

This matter is quite aside from the general impression that he will be pardoned in a few days by President Loubet, who will ad me ground to exercise clemency.

Maitre Demange thinks the five years will count for nothing and that Dreyfus, according to the law, will have to suffer ten years' decention Many others, however, including sev eral lawyers, hold a contrary opinion and de clare that he will be released in October s already said, is the belief of Dreyfus himself. M Compois, the clerk of the court martial. most emphatic in declaring that Drevfus must serve ten years from the date of a fresh degradation, the court martial having considered the case as beginning when Dreyfus appeared before them, disregarding altogether his previous sentence

M. Coupois said: "I have no doubt whatever that according to the military code Dreyfus must undergo degradation again, as he was reinstated as a captain in the army and he appeared before the court in uniform. That he will actually be put through this cruel ordeal I think doubtful. If it depended on me I know what I should do, and the President of the Republic may think with me,"

DEGRADATION NOT PROBABLE

Colonel Jouanst also declared that Dreyfus must serve ten years, but, speaking with friends to-day, he expressed a conviction that there would not be a fresh degradation. This ceremony requires breaking the prisoner's sword and tearing off his epaulets. But Drevfus never had his sword restored to him, and s only were undress uniform without epaulets, as that it would be impossible to carry out the regulations for degradation. This is Colonel Jounust's view

Those who think Drevfus will be released in october because the five years on Devil's Island and wine out the present sentence, saw in the fact that he was sentenced for exactly ten years a confirmation of their view, but they not because that happens to be double his term military code, the recording of two votes in his favor fixes the term of detention at ten years

An interesting fact, developed to-day, is that the police had taken every precaution to get Impofus safely out of Rennes in the event of sequittal, in which case, it was unanimously and probably an attempt upon his life. The police had acranged to conduct him back to the military prison after the verdict with the same precautions as during the trial. He was to have I received civilian attire and a false heard, and then to have left the prison by the small door of the recruiting office, leading to the Avenue & la Gare. No one would have empected him to go through that building, which is attached to he military prison, and, thanks to the disguise, the police hoped he would reach the station safely, where a special train was waiting to rish him off before the crowd could have learned of his leaving the prison.

results as a travesty on justice. Rabbl Emil G. Hirsch said: "It is the old, old story. When a country wants a scapegoat on which to unload all its shortcomings it selects a Jew. That is true all ever the world. I have no doubt that had Dreyfus not been a Jew the result would have been different. In France ninety-nine out of one bundred people are convinced that he is guilty, and they think se because he is a Jew.

The sulficised the Jeauits somewhat, an raid they were as much the cause for the unhapp condition of France as were Dreyfus and the Jews. "Fop Lee has always acknowledged the Republic of France." said Dr. Burt, "but the Jeauits, I know of my own knowledge, are the agents, or at least the supporters, for the claims of the pretender. They have taken advantage of the pretender against Dreyfus as a Jew to stir up a muddy pool in which they can fish for their own benefit."

News to stay sway from the Paris Exposition. It will not be an organized boycott, but the natural feeling that France is hostile to Jews will keep them away. I was jeered as a Jew when in Paris the summer and nobody under similar circum-stances would wish to go to the Exposition.

The effect on the American people as a whole may be different. Just now they think France has done Dreyfus an injustice, but they will forget. Lest year the French reviled America because we dated to whip Spain without France's consent. This year the Parisian hotels could not hold the vast bordes of Americans. That is the way we forget

DREYFUSARDS ON LA GASCOGNE. REGRET GENERAL AMONG THE PASSENGERS AT THE CAPTAIN'S MISFORTUNE.

Dreyfusards apparently predominated among the assengers in the steamship La Gascogne, which reached here from Havre yesterday, for there was a very general expression of regret at the verdict of the military court at Rennes, and much sympathy was evinced both for Captain Dreytus and his wife. Of course, there were some who upheld the court, and on the way up the Bay, after the news had been learned from the pilot and at Quarantine, there were excited groups all over the ship arguing about the case with much vehemence and gesticulation.

'It is the disgrace of France." 'Justice is outraged,' 'Truth is dragged in the mud.' were some of the characterizations of the verdict, and so eager were the passengers for details of the last week's proceedings of the court that a newsboy well provided with back numbers would have reaped a harvest pathy was evinced both for Captain Dreyfus and "Standing armies are menaces to the peace and happiness of all nations, and they will be none the less so because one is established within the borders of this republic. The standing army somer or later becomes a great machine for the oppression of the people. It is controlled by men who, by reason of their education and training have nothing in common with the masses. They produce nothing. They have little to do except to intrigue and scheme to enlarge their own powers and encroach upon the rights of the people who maintain them. The Dreyfus case has shown all this and the people of this country will not find it hard to believe that the policy of imperialism being pursued by the McKinley Administration is simply a thin veil for the purpose of the great corporations and strusts to feist a great military institution on this land. American voters will hear much about Captain Dreyfus between now and Election Day."

From The Philadelphia Times.

A nation with justice rudely driven from her own sanctuary, and with a military despotism of a most unscrupilous and criminal type overriding law can have but brief existence in the enlightened civilization of the closing century, and the reconviction of Dreyfus means that revolution will speedily do him justice.
